Anti-Ragging Cell

The college established an anti-ragging committee as per UGC regulations. Ragging is strictly prohibited both inside and outside the campus. Anyone found guilty of ragging, encouraging ragging either directly or indirectly, or being part of a conspiracy to encourage ragging faces consequences under UGC Regulations (No. UGCD-Rag/C/96(15)/SCHE/2009), which were distributed on April 13, 2009. Ragging is completely outlawed in the college.

Objectives:-

The objective of the Anti-Ragging Committee is to serve as an advising and monitoring body to maintain a culture free from ragging on college campuses. The following are this cell's primary objectives:

1. To make the students aware of the perversity and degrading effects of ragging.
2. To continuously monitor and keep an eye out for ragging to stop it from happening again.
3. To take immediate and severe action against any instances of ragging that are brought to our attention.
4. To establish a culture of discipline by making it abundantly evident that ragging will not be accepted and that it will always be detected and dealt with.
